

HOW TO CREATE A COUPON

Impressio is an investment and lending platform that truly knows that we are only as successful as our users. We understand that we have to continually work to make sure that our platform is the best possible option, and one way that we do that is by providing incentives and bonuses for both our promoters and investors. To create a coupon, first, click on the “Coupons” tab from the main page, and you should see this screen:

We pride ourselves in finding new ways to make sure that our users can feel empowered and confident about spreading the word, and we do this through deposit bonuses, and giving you a certain percentage from the deposit of the coupon user. This is a great opportunity for our users to promote their own coupons, whether it's to a friend, family, associate, or someone across the world over the internet! It truly is a blessing to know that you can earn passive income from someone you never met, because you are spreading the word and helping someone achieve financial independence by making a strategic cryptocurrency investment with our platform. We also make the process even easier by allowing you to customize your own coupon with the name of your choice, so that you can personalize the coupon for a more effective strategy to reach potential new users. We even pride ourselves in displaying the most successful coupons used. Here is a screenshot of how Impressio listing the most used coupons on our platform:
